When is the hound crated?

- Not Crated At All

How does the hound handle being crated?

Bill is mostly only crated for meals. He does well being left out and muzzled through the day. He also sleeps in our room muzzled at night. He has no issue when crated, but likes to have a comfy bed inside.

What does the hound enjoy?

Bill enjoys getting attention from his people. He is a very sweet affectionate boy on his terms (he should not be pet when he is relaxing in bed) he also enjoys hanging out with other hounds.

Does the hound have any fears?

Bill's only fear that we have seen are tiles floors. He will cross them with encouragement and does fine at pet stores.

What type of temperament does the hound have? (Shy, outgoing, confident, etc.)

Bill is a spunky outgoing funny boy. He's 9 with the personality of a 2 year old. He also is a clingy boy and loves to follow his people around and is very curious about what they are doing.

How does the hound handle new situations?

Bill does well in new situations. He goes to meet and greets often and loves seeing the people and dogs.
