Yes

Method of Correction

verbal correction of "no" or "hey" is usually enough for her, she is very responsive and sensitive to correction. If a larger correction is needed then snapping fingers is enough.

Small Dog Safe

Yes

Cat Safe

Yes

Comments (Cat Safe)

She lives with two cats in her foster home and does really well with them

Good With Young Children

Not Sure

Comments (Young Children)

she hasn't had many interactions with young children, but with her shy personality, I wouldn't suggest she live with younger/boisterous humans.

Turn Out Routine

7am before breakfast, after work (anywhere from 12-4pm), turn out before dinner and before bed again. she will pee when on the leash but is very hesitant to do this with a new person and also very rarely poops on the leash. A fenced-in yard is recommended for her.

Potty On Lead

Not Sure

Garbage

not much exposure/opportunity for temptation in foster home.

Stairs

okay with 3-4 steps, she usually jumps them. No experience with full flights of stairs.

Floors

no issues on wood, tile, carpet etc.

Counters

no observed issues.

When is the hound crated?

- 8 Hour Work Day

How does the hound handle being crated?

Shelley goes into her crate willingly and is usually quiet until the foster family returns home. Then she barks to welcome her people back. She occasionally has potty accidents in her crate.

What does the hound enjoy?

Shelley enjoys cuddles, pets, and kisses! Along with chew toys and a good romp in the yard playing with other greyhounds. She likes going on walks and gets very excited when she sees the leashes come out.

Does the hound have any fears?

She is nervous in new situations and with new people. It's best to have at least one other confident dog with her to help her navigate these times. She does best when she can blend into the pack when she's uncomfortable and approach at her own speed.

She can spook easily at sudden movements or loud noises, but this decreases with exposure.

What type of temperament does the hound have? (Shy, outgoing, confident, etc.)

Shelley is shy and skittish when first meeting new people but then is happy and bouncy when she's comfortable. She can be very playful!

How does the hound handle new situations?

She is shy and skittish in new situations. She does best when she has a second, more confident, dog with her to help her navigate and take some of the heat off of her.
