How does the hound handle being crated?

Is now good in the crate (no problems with being crated when we leave at all), but was a little whiney/apprehensive during the first couple of days

What does the hound enjoy?

A good dog bed. He likes pets and toys as well, but mostly enjoys a good sleep.

Does the hound have any fears?

Not a big fan of the vacuum and sometimes apprehensive of new things

What type of temperament does the hound have? (Shy, outgoing, confident, etc.)

Stride is the definition of chill. He is fairly confident but more reserved in that he doesn't need attention all the time. He's fairly independent.
