Comments (Cat Safe)

Piren wants to be friends with our 5 cats. She likes to supervise what they are doing out of curiosity but that is mostly curiosity and still having puppy behavior as she is not yet 2 years old. But she will chase them because it is fun, but they stand up to her. So shy, skittish cats will not be a good match for her.

Good With Young Children

Not Sure

Comments (Young Children)

Piren could do well with older children and teens, but my excitement might be too much for younger children.

Turn Out Routine

Turnout: Piren goes out to the bathroom in our fenced in yard, in the morning when we wake up (between 5:00 and 6:00AM most days). Then has breakfast around 7:00AM, and is turned out afterwards. She is crated from 8:00AM-12:00PM when she is turned out. She is crated from about 1:00-5:00PM, when she is turned out again, fed dinner, and turned out afterwards. Then around 8:00PM and a last time at 10:00PM.

Potty On Lead

Yes

Garbage

Our garbage is behind a baby gate and a locked lid. I would not trust her unmuzzled around trash.

Near expert level, may need a bit of encouragement with new stairs.

Floors

Zero issue with smooth floors.

Counters

No issue observed.

When is the hound crated?

- Both During The Work Day and At Bed Time

How does the hound handle being crated?

Piren does fine in the crate, has no issues at bed time, and sleeps through the night. She doesn't fuss when we first get up and leave her in the crate for a few minutes.

When we get home for mid-day turnout and end of day turnout Piren gets excited and howls & whines to be let out. We are working with her to help not be so excited, but some of this should go away as she gets older too.

What does the hound enjoy?

Piren also loves humans and wants to spend as much time as she can near the people in her home. She will follow us around the house to any room we go into, even when told to stay. And she would very much like to get on the couch for snuggles. Even though she is not allowed, she still tries to ask every day in the cutest way possible if we would please reconsider. But needs a patient human with a firm voice and consistent rules.

Does the hound have any fears?

None known.

What type of temperament does the hound have? (Shy, outgoing, confident, etc.)

Piren's temperament is very much puppy. Most everything she does is because she is under 2 and has that major puppy energy. She wants to be in the business of our 3 greyhounds, and our non-grey because she doesn't know her place in the pack. And she doesn't listen to the older dogs in our house, and challenges their authority. She loves playing with anybody in the house or outside because she doesn't yet know that we don't play in the house.

How does the hound handle new situations?

Piren is a little cautious about new situations but can be convinced to go most anywhere if there are people or dogs to follow.
