When is the hound crated?

- 8 Hour Work Day

How does the hound handle being crated?

Shes a pro, very excited to be let out but goes in with no issues and no noise. Okay with being crated while foster siblings are on sofas. Also okay with being left out, she sleeps like a baby.

What does the hound enjoy?

Soft squeaky toys!!! The lambchop is her all time favorite, doing zoomies with her sister Doe, and giving kisses!

Does the hound have any fears?

Not currently, she's been a champion and taking retirement life in stride.

What type of temperament does the hound have? (Shy, outgoing, confident, etc.)

Bubbly, and little aloof. She's a happy girl who's on the quiet side until she's playing then she likes to bark and be a spaz! She calms quickly and loves attention.

How does the hound handle new situations?

She can be a little shy at first just taking it all in. She won't pull to get away, or look for an escape, she just takes it all in stride until she gets comfortable and then she acts like she's always been there.
