A firm "no" or "nuh-uh"

Small Dog Safe

Yes

Comments (Small Dog)

Has greeted small dogs at Meet and Greets politely.

Cat Safe

Yes

Comments (Cat Safe)

Has sniffed and licked the geriatric cat in her foster home, but is otherwise uninterested. She might chase a younger cat that runs away from her.

Good With Young Children

Not Sure

Comments (Young Children)

I haven't seen her interact with young children, but I have no reason to believe there would be any issues if the children are behaving appropriately and not pulling/tugging at her.

Turn Out Routine

First thing in the morning after being let out of the crate
Right after breakfast
Around noon
Upon returning home from work
Right after dinner
Before bedtime

Potty On Lead

Not Sure

Garbage

Interested, but hasn't gotten into it.

Stairs

Can handle small flights. No experience with longer flights of stairs.

Floors

Handles all types of flooring well

Counters

Interested, but easy to redirect. I don't recommend leaving food unattended on the counters.

When is the hound crated?

- Bed Time

How does the hound handle being crated?

Lela crates well without any problem when I am away from the house and at night. Pet cameras indicate she sleeps most of the time she is crated. She will bark and whine to be let out as soon as she hears you wake up or return to the home.

What does the hound enjoy?

Neck scratches and ear rubs
Toys
Napping in the sun
Chasing bunnies and squirrels

Does the hound have any fears?

She isn't thrilled with thunderstorms, but doesn't appear to be too reactive...mostly just panting and pacing in response to tornado sirens.

What type of temperament does the hound have? (Shy, outgoing, confident, etc.)

Lela is confident and affectionate.

How does the hound handle new situations?

Lela handles new situations well. She is curious and will explore new environments and new people.

What type of food are you currently using?

Diamond Naturals Beef and Rice

Amount of AM feeding

1.5 cups

Amount of PM feeding

2 cups
