Small Dog Safe

Not Sure

Comments (Small Dog)

No small dogs in foster home.

Cat Safe

Yes

Comments (Cat Safe)

She is fine with the lazy geriatric cat in her foster home. She will sniff him, but largely leaves him alone.

Good With Young Children

Not Sure

Comments (Young Children)

No young children in foster home. I'm sure she would be fine with responsible children who understand how to behave appropriately with dogs.

Turn Out Routine

First thing in morning and again after breakfast
Before I leave for work around noon
When I get home from work
After dinner
Before bed

Potty On Lead

Not Sure

Garbage

Interested, but hasn't gotten into it. I have a locking trash can lid which has been helpful.

Stairs

Can handle small flights. No experience with longer flights of stairs.

Floors

good with all types of flooring

Counters

She does not counter surf, but I do not leave food out. She would absolutely grab something yummy off the counters given the opportunity.

When is the hound crated?

- Both During The Work Day and At Bed Time

How does the hound handle being crated?

Star does fine being crated all night. She tolerates the crate during the workday, but would probably prefer not to be crated during daytime hours.

What does the hound enjoy?

Treats, squeaky toys, ear rubs, neck scratches, belly rubs, time outside in the yard to sniff all the things, barking hello to the neighbor's dog

Does the hound have any fears?

She doesn't love loud lawn equipment. On the last mowing day she voluntarily retreated to her crate for awhile.

What type of temperament does the hound have? (Shy, outgoing, confident, etc.)

A little aloof or shy at first, but she warms up to people quickly. When she becomes familiar with a place and people, she is confident and silly.

How does the hound handle new situations?

She is usually a little reserved about new situations. She just needs time to assess the situation before she relaxes.
