Comments (Cat Safe)

Clair is really interested in the cats, and likes to follow them when they run away from her. Clair has tried to play with our cats and sometimes gets a too rough with our cats who tolerate her.

Good With Young Children

Yes

Turn Out Routine

We get up around 5am and immediately put the dogs out potty. They eat breakfast around 6:15; and go potty again around 6:30. We return from work around noon to let the dogs out. They are turned out around 5pm, then eat and are turned out around 6pm; 8pm; and 10pm.

Potty On Lead

Not Sure

Garbage

Clair is very interested in garbage. We keep ours in a can with locked lid and behind a baby gate. She still tries to swipe recycling from the open recycling bin.

Stairs

Clair is a pro at stairs with and without carpeting

Floors

No fear of smooth/hard floors. But has learned to respect the wood floor in our walkway to the deck exit.

Counters

Overall just a generally curious 2 year old. Has not tried counter surfing, but any 2-year-old may try it.

When is the hound crated?

- Both During The Work Day and At Bed Time

How does the hound handle being crated?

Clair hasn't had any issue being crated. No attempts to escape, or tantrums. She also has had no potty accidents in the crate, even when crated over 10 hours. Sleeps through the night. Patiently awaits being released in the morning. Sometimes licks the bars at bedtime, but corrects easily.

What does the hound enjoy?

Clair is a pretty happy girl overall. She likes attention and affection. Wants to sample all the bones that are available. Clair likes interacting with our other dogs, cats, and getting attention from people. When happy to see someone she will do a bit of a side to side wiggle dance while walking towards them.

Does the hound have any fears?

None that we've seen.

What type of temperament does the hound have? (Shy, outgoing, confident, etc.)

Clair is confident and outgoing. She has 2-year-old energy in that she wants to be involved in anything that she is allowed to. But her confidence is clear when out in the yard with our other dogs, she is happy to be outside playing, but is nearly always the first dog to come inside when we call for them. She is also good at taking corrections and has learned to go lay down when told to.

How does the hound handle new situations?

She is very confident and outgoing and has no issues with new situations.
